HOUSE APPROVES REVISED MINING LAW AMID OUTCRY

Wednesday, 13 May 2020

As the country grapples with the COVID-19 crisis, lawmakers have approved a controversial revision of the 2009 Coal and Mineral Mining Law, despite outcry from civil society organizations.

The new law, aimed at developing Indonesia's downstream mining industry and increasing economic growth, Read more...

DEMAND FOR PHOTOVOLTAIC PANELS PLUMMETS IN INDONESIA AMID PANDEMIC

Tuesday, 05 May 2020

Indonesia's photovoltaic (PV) providers face a bleak business outlook at least in the next six months as the government and individual users cut back spending on anything deemed nonessential amid the pandemic, including solar panels. Demand for commercial PV panels was down up to 70 percent in the March-April period from a year earlier as businesses aborted installation plans and as Read more...

EXPORTS OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES CONTINUE DESPITE LOGISTICAL DISRUPTIONS

Tuesday, 05 May 2020

Indonesia's exports of agricultural commodities have continued despite logistical disruptions caused by measures to contain the COVID-19 pandemic. The Agriculture Ministry officially dispatched a shipment of 94,000 tons of agricultural commodities including mangosteen.
